

BEING NEIGHBORLY (BeNe) HOW WE ADD VALUE

For Individuals

- Less isolation
- Increased sense of security
- Increased connectedness with positive identities
- Increased health
- Increased meaning and purpose
- Increased opportunity for sharing interests

For Families

- Reduced expenses
 - Lending libraries
 - Community garden
 - Food share
- Increased support for parenting goals
 - Safe and fun family activities
 - Values modeling
 - Play dates for children

For Neighborhoods

- Increased safety
 - Emergency preparedness
 - Neighborhood connections
- More resources for accomplishing shared goals
- Leveling of playing field
- Increased awareness of valuable existing programs created by cities and non-profits

For Non-profits

- Increased collaboration
- Reduced demand on services

By: Lea Zengage

As of: October 13, 2016

#startup

- Increased capacity for proactive solution creation

For Society

- Model for Being Neighborly vision for our culture
- Less harm to our planet